Land for Sale.

Conformably to an order issued from the honourable court of Calvert county, at September term laft, the subscribers will offer, at PUBLIC AUC-TION, on Tuesday the 4th day of February next, if fair, if not, the first fair day thereafter, at the late residence of NATHAN SMITH, deceased, at the hour of twelve o'clock,

VALUABLE tract of land, containing four hundred and fourteen acres and fourteen perches; this truly fertile spot may justly be ranked as first rate land, the soil being extremely rich, capable of producing wheat, hemp, flax, clover, timothy, Indian corn, and fine tobacco; the greater part of this beautiful place lies extremely level, and we should do injustice to it, did we neglect to fay that few places are equal and none can excel it; the im-provements are convenient, and in tolerable repair; and as it is presumable those who are inclined to purchase will view the premises previous to the day of fale, it renders a full detail of the improvements unnecessary; this place lies within four miles of Nottingham, and about fix from Pig Point, has a fufficiency of timber and wood to support it, a tolerable apple orchard, with other fruit trees. The terms of fale are, that bond, and approved fecurity, will be required on the day of fale, payable in two equal payments, the first in twelve, and the second in eighteen months, with yearly interest on the purchase money unpaid; the sale to be subject to the ratification and confirmation of the court, and upon the whole purchase money, and interest, being paid, and not before, the purchaser or purchasers will receive an indisputable title to the premises so bargained and fold. Possession will be given on the day of sale. This land will be fold altogether, or in lots, as may appear most conducive to the interest of the reprefentatives.

RACHEL WARFIELD, Guardian to JOHN, ALLEN, and RACHEL WAR-FIELD.

In CHANCERY, November 25, 1805. ORIGINAL BILL AND BILL OF REVIVOR. Michael Kraner,

Anne Johnson, widow of Thomas Johnson, deceased, Rinaldo Johnson, Thomas Johnson, John Johnson, John Woodward, and Rachel his wife, Mary Ja-mieson, John Hopkins Fox, and Elizabeth his wife, and Anne Johnson, daughter of the said Thomas Johnson, deceased, and vs. Elizabeth Johnson, widow of Horatio Johnson, deceased, and Horatio, Edward, Rinaldo, Eliza, Marian, Sarah, Caroline, Charles, Arthur, Thomas and Evelina Johnson, infant children and co-heirs and heiresses of the said Horatio Johnson, deceased.

HE object of the bills is to obtain a decree for the redemption of a mortgage on a certain tract of land called " Angles Fortune," containing eighty acres, and fituate in Baltimore county, which ance in the adjustment of the mortgage debt of certain payments alledged to have been made by the complainants to the original mortgagees and their affigns, and likewise of the sum of L. 103 1 9 current money, alledged to be due to the complainant from Rinaldo Johnson, one of the defendants.

- The relief is prayed on the ground that the mortgage has been regularly transferred to and vested in the defendants in the original bill, and Horatio Johnfon, the father of the infant defendants in the bill of revivor, which Horatio and the said defendants in the original bill were the children and co-heirs and heiresses of Thomas Johnson, deceased; that this transfer was made by virtue and in performance of a contract made between the original mortgagees and the faid Thomas Johnson in his lifetime; that the equity of redemption of the mortgaged premises was conveyed in the year 1787, to the complainant by Edward Isreallo, fon and heir of Angle Ifreallo the mostgagor; that various fums, to a confidence amount, by way of rent for the mortgaged premiles, first to the original mortgagees, then to the faid Thomas Johnson, deceased, as assignee of the mortgage, and after his death to the defendants, Anne, the widow, and Rinaldo, as his administrator and administratrix, and that the defendant Rinaldo being entitled to a part of the mortgage money, his debt to the complainant ought to be fet off against that part, all these matters are fully stated in the original bill; as also that Thomas Johnson the father died in 1790, and that the defendant Rinaldo is his eldest son and heir at law.

The bill of revivor states, that after the filing of the original bill, Horatio, one of the defendants, died intestate, leaving a widow and children, who are the defendants in the bill of revivor. It appears that the defendant. Rinaldo has put in his answer to the original bill, but that none of the other defendants to that bill have answered or appeared, although they have all been served with process of subpoena. It are appears that process of subpœna has been served on all the defendants in the bill of revivor, none of whom have appeared.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be inferted three weeks successively in the Maryland Gazette, before the 13th day of December next, give notice to the defendants of this application, and of the substance and object of the bill, that they may be warned to appear here in person, or by a solicitor, before the 13th day of April next, to shew cause, if any they have, wherefore a decree should not be passed as prayed.
